

MASKERS SHOWERED WITH CONFETTI

The first Confetti Masquerade ever held in Honolulu was that last night held at Progress Hall, where scores of young people of both sexes in all manner of beautiful and grotesque costumes had a rollicking time. The dancers made the most of their opportunities en masque and created all sorts of fun for the spectators.

By 9 o'clock the floor was filled with maskers. There were girls in Red, Girls in Blue, Toppies, clowns, hula dancers, Moanahua, soldiers, dominoes, follies, Snow Girls, Happy Hooligans and a variety of comic characters seen in the funny papers.

Solomon's Quintette Club, in white with red sashes, furnished excellent music through the long evening of dancing. First came grand marches, resolving into two-steps and then several waltzes, while the six judges watched and picked out the winners of prizes. It was difficult to do the right thing, for there were many excellent costumes. After the fifth dance, the Judges were ready to announce their decision, and the maskers crowded forward. The winners were as follows:

Best dressed lady, (a Greek), Miss Mohler; best dressed gentleman, (Spanish Cavalier), Herbert Simpson; best sustained character, (Topsy), Miss K. Boles; best sustained character, gentleman, (Moanahua), but in this case the character was taken by a young lady and she did not wish her name mentioned; most original characters, Hiawatha and Minnehaha, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hopper.

A pretty feature of the masquerade was the throwing of confetti, somewhat new in dances here. The floor and spectators were treated to liberal showers of the bright colored bits of paper and diamond dust.

The committee in charge of the affair were P. G. Noyes, E. A. Jacobsen, Ben Lee.

MRS. HARBOTTLE DIES AT THE AGE OF EIGHTY

Mrs. Kekuialono Harbottle, widow of the late Isaac Harbottle, died at 6 p. m. yesterday at the home of her son, James Hakuole, Kunawai, off Liliha street. She was a native of Maui and about 80 years of age.

Mrs. Harbottle leaves a daughter, five grand-children and nine great grand-children. Besides Mr. Hakuole already named, Isaac Harbottle of the tax office is a grandson of the deceased. The funeral will take place from Mr. Hakuole's house at 3 p. m. today.
